Comments to the Author

As this is an empirical work, the authors should have spelled the criteria for the selection of four sites for in depth survey. The researcher(s) dwell heavily on the role of government agencies attitude and improvement criteria. They should pay more attention to check the amelioration of slums in the city. I think if these two points are elaborated the paper may considered for publication.

Dear Dr Supriyatno

I am pleased to accept your revised manuscript entitled "THE ATTITUDE AND ROLE OF BEKASI CITY GOVERNMENT IN SLUM AREAS", which you submitted to Journal of Human Behavior in the Social Environment, has been reviewed.

Now please submit another revised "clean" version without highlights. Also, make sure to only include one copy of the submission. The version I just reviewed has two copies in one document. I am sure you did that so I could see the changes. However, I need the manuscript if final condition to send along for copy editing and production. Lastly, I encourage you to delete the heading title "Chapter 5" from the manuscript. An article is not a book or dissertation. No need to break the article down by numbered chapters/sections.
